

Basic Activities Section Description:

The Basic Activities section provides programming that deals specifically with issues and curricular trends related to instruction of physical activities in higher education.